

I am strongly in support of Wisconsin's No Call list. Telemarketing calls are a complete invasion of privacy. They are unwelcome. Consumers have no control; even with judicious attempts to keep your information private you still receive interruptions. I would have 2-3 calls daily, the no call list has given us welcome relief. Please do not hinder my privacy. Thank you!